

Triopetra coast is after Akoumia village and the route from Rethymno is about 40 minutes. Coast name comes from the three rocks that rising from the sea at the end of the beach.

On that coast you can find more local people than tourists. It is a wonderful coast with umbrellas and deck chairs, tavernas for lunch with local products. Also that coast is fantastic at the sunset.

The coast is ideally for rest and calm. The access to the coast is very easy and you can spend a whole day discovering the fantastic round place.

The route to the village of Akoumia is about 15 minutes. It is a sandy beach where the small pebbles creating fantastic colours. It is an organized coast with umbrellas, deck chairs and restaurant close to the beach.